

RECOVERY FROM TRAUMA: LESSONS FROM GROUND ZERO AND BEYOND

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 12, 2011

Co-Sponsored by
THE BELLEVUE/NYU PROGRAM FOR SURVIVORS OF TORTURE, THE NYU MASTERS SCHOLARS PROGRAM IN MEDICAL HUMANISM
and
THE PETER C. ALDERMAN FOUNDATION

NYU LANGONE MEDICAL CENTER

Farkas Auditorium

8:15 Check-in and Registration
9:00 Welcome: Mariano Rey and Stephen Alderman

Panels:

1. 9:15–10:45 Leveraging Resilience: The Experience of Healing

Moderator: Hawthorne Smith

International Work with Post-Conflict Survivors: Kathleen Alden, Peter C. Alderman Foundation, Dartmouth Medical School

Mental Health and 9/11—Lessons Learned: Sandro Galea, Mailman School of Public Health, Columbia University

When There is No Safe Haven: Therapeutic Work with Traumatized Immigrants in the Wake of 9/11: Hawthorne Smith, NYU-Bellevue Program for Survivors of Torture

2. 11:00–12:30 Bearing Witness: The Experience of the Media

Moderator: Kate Porterfield

Jim Axelrod, CBS News

David Chen, New York Times

Dan Harris, ABC News

12:30–1:30 LUNCH

3. 1:30–3:00 Harnessing Knowledge: Advocacy and Prevention

Moderator: Andrew Rasmussen

Anti-Torture Work, and the Effects of 9/11: Steve Reisner, NYU School of Medicine

The Mental Health Effects of Exposure to Terrorism: Yuval Neria, Mailman School of Public Health, Columbia University

Human Rights in the War on Terror: Lessons from Guantanamo: Kate Porterfield,
NYU School of Medicine

4. 3:15–4:45 Planning and Prevention: The Way Forward

Moderator: Neil Boothby, Mailman School of Public Health, Columbia University

Protecting Children: Neil Boothby

Returning Veterans: Charles Marmar, NYU School of Medicine

Post-Conflict Countries: Seggane Musisi, Peter C. Alderman Foundation, School of Medicine, Makerere University College of Health Sciences